

Bird In a Cage

1. Cut carefully around the template and fold along the dotted line.
2. Glue the two blank sides together and punch holes through the paper where shown.
3. Attach some string through each hole, making sure it's secure enough for when you stretch it out.
4. Twist the string by flipping the disk round then pull and the disk will spin. The bird will look as though it is in the cage.

