

Almost everyone had brought in a doll. What does this tell you about Maya's classmates?

Ans. This tells us that they cared how Maya felt about the situation and wanted to help.

Maya now had lots of dolls but the job of choosing one became even more difficult. Explain why?

Ans. The job of choosing a doll became even more difficult as the more choices you have the longer it will take.

If you had brought in a doll for Maya to use and it hadn't been chosen would you be upset?

Explain why.

Ans. I would be upset as I made a special effort to bring a doll in and was upset that she didn't like mine best.

Ans. I would be ok. If she didn't use my doll as long as she had one that was suitable for the play.

What did the multi-coloured shawl represent?

Ans. The multi-coloured shawl represent that Jesus was born for all the colours on the earth.
