

The Queen's Handbag

By Steve Antony.

The Queen was ready for her tour of Great Britain when...
swoosh!

A sneaky swan swooped off with her handbag!

The swan was fast, but so was the Queen!

She drove after it to...

Windsor Castle.

Then she rode after it to...

Stonehenge.

Then she flew after it to...

The White Cliffs of Dover.

She cycled after it to...

Oxford.

She dived after it to...

Snowdonia.

She sped after it to...

The Giant's Causeway.

She chugged after it to...

The Angel of the North.

She galloped after it to...

Edinburgh Castle,

And all the way back to ...

London. But the swan was nowhere to be seen, until the Queen spotted it in...

the London Marathon, where she finally caught the sneaky swan at...

the finish line!
