

Let's look at the text more closely.

Answers

1. The wind takes the Queen's hat away; which words are used to let us know the hat is moving through the air?

Swish soared wooshed swept sailed (the Queen floated)

2. Which of these words might have also been used? Circle them.

flung whipped stretched somersaulted whisked jumped flew

3. Name three of the places in London the hat flew over?

Trafalgar Square, London Zoo, Tower Bridge, London Eye, Big Ben, Kensington Palace.

4. Who else helped the Queen to try to catch the hat?

The Queen's men and her corgi(?!?)

5. Many of the lines in the story start with 'and all'. Can you find them and copy them down?

and all the way to, and all through, and all along, and all around, and all across, and all over.

6. Who is the very special person the Queen is about to visit right at the beginning of the story?

It could be anyone but I think it is her new baby great-grandchild.

7. Where does the hat finally land? Who lives in this Palace?

The hat lands in Kensington Palace where Prince William and Prince George live.

8. We don't know if the Queen enjoyed her trip around London chasing her hat. What do you think? Why do you think this?

---

---