

Day 3

Balance target

Discuss the actions and relationships of the main characters, justifying views using evidence from the text.

Read or listen to the story again before you start this lesson.

You will need to know the story well to answer the questions.

Our task is to look for clues in the story to see how and why Erisychthon's relationship with his daughter changes throughout the story.

What did he do to his daughter that suggests he no longer cared for her?

Why did his relationship with his daughter change so drastically?

Thursday 28th January

Find evidence from the text to explain how and why Erisychthon's relationship with his daughter changed.

Discuss the actions and relationships of the main characters, justifying views using evidence from the text.

I noticed that the relationship between Erisychthon and his daughter changed because...
