

Answers.

1. Why didn't anyone have a clue what to get for the Queen's birthday?

No-one had a clue what to get because she had so much stuff.

2. What did the Royal Baby guess the Queen might want for her birthday?

The Royal baby thought the Queen might like handpainted porcelain thimbles.

3. Why does the Queen want an orang-utan?

The Queen wants an orang-utan to be her butler.

4. How big was the gigantic cake that was wheeled in?

The gigantic cake was the size of a paddling pool.

5. Why do YOU think the Queen DOES want an orang-utan for a butler?

The Queen wants an orang-utan for a butler because (your idea).

6. What word in the text means climbed?

The word clambered means climbed.

7. Could you write a definition of what a chandelier is? If you are not sure, then take a look at the picture to help you.

A chandelier is a large decorative, hanging light.

8. It says, "The Queen smiled to herself. This was turning out to be her best birthday ever."

Why do you think this was turning into the best birthday ever?

Would you have thought this was a good birthday?

The Queen was enjoying everything going wrong and being a mess. It would be unlike any other birthday she'd had.