

Today we are looking at where highwaymen committed their crimes. We are writing as though it were a few hundred years ago, a time when highwaymen existed.

1. Look at the photos on the next page. What can you see? How would you describe them?
2. If you were a highwayman, waiting for a carriage to come by, how would you feel? Why?
3. If you were in a carriage, travelling in a lonely place, how would you feel? Why?
4. Complete the writing task below, always using full sentences. Remember to focus on your own specific writing targets.
5. Take a photo of your writing and then submit it to me!
