

Here is what to do today:

1. Listen to the audio file about Derek Smith. It is on the virtual school, just under where you found this document.
2. Read the questions below, which you need to answer as though you are Derek Smith.
3. Listen to the audio file again, maybe making some notes and pausing it when you need to.
4. Complete the writing task below, always using full sentences. Remember to focus on your own specific writing targets. You may need to listen to some of the audio again.
5. Take a photo of your writing and then submit it using the button on today's virtual school page.

word bank: snowy icy places worked clean cook entertain read photographs table tennis

What is your favourite place to sail to?

I really like unusual places, especially _____

Did you have a different job before you became a captain?

What do you like to do to enjoy yourself and have fun?