

After learning about highwaymen yesterday, today you get to experience the poem itself!

1. Today you are focusing on the character of the highwayman. What do you know about him already? Have a think.

2. Watch the YouTube animation of the poem The Highwayman a few times. While you are watching, focus on what you find out about the highwayman. You might like to read the questions on this sheet first.

3. Complete the writing task below, always using full sentences. Remember to focus on your own specific writing targets.

4. Take a photo of your writing and then submit it to me!
