

Iron and Steel (Answers)

1. Things made of iron and steel could include:- scissors, food tins, chair legs, door handles...
2. You would look for iron in rocks laying below the ground.
3. A rock that has a good deal of iron in it is called iron ore.
4. We are told that it is rather heavy.
5. Mining for ore is harder to get out of the ground than coal.
6. The iron ore is melted to extract it from the rock.
7. Coke is used as fuel.
8. Limestone is added to help separate the iron from the ore.
9. It is called a blast furnace because a strong blast of hot air is sent through the burning mixture.