

Magnets (Answers)

1. Scientists make their discoveries by thoughtful, planned experimenting.
2. You should have found out that your magnet attracts certain things and not others.
3. To learn more about your magnet try testing it on a variety of objects.
4. You need to collect a variety of material types.
5. The headings for the list of materials collect could be:- Things attracted by the magnet & Things not attracted by the magnet.
6. The materials attracted by the magnet were all made of metal / iron.
7. The magnet would still draw the object even though it was covered with leather.
8. Test both ends.