

Today we want you to learn and perform the poem with actions.

- If you are at home learn all the stanzas and record your favourite one with actions. I will try and put them together and we can create a whole poem video.

- In school we will put you into groups and you will learn and create actions to go with your stanza.

Think about the lines in your stanza, what the author is saying and what the language might be saying.