

The Elephant's Child (Answers)

1. You could meet the elephant's child in the continent of Africa.
2. The elephant liked to eat fruit and grass.
3. (a) He pulled the food down from the tree above him. (b) Before he waited until it fell down.
4. (a) He plucked the food from the ground. (b) Before he would go down on his knees to get his food.
5. To swat flies he broke off a branch from a tree.
6. When the sun was hot he cooled himself with a cool slushy-squishy mud cap.
7. When he was lonely he sang to himself down his trunk.
8. His singing was louder than several brass bands.
9. The author is Rudyard Kipling.
10. The title is 'The Elephant Child from 'The Just So Stories'