

Katie in London.

1. What does it mean when the text says, 'It was quite a tight squeeze for the lion'?

2. What phrase in the text tells us that the crown jewels were very shiny?

3. Why do you think an alarm sounded and lights flashed when the lion was on Tower Bridge?

4. Why has the word STOP! been written in capital letters with an exclamation mark at the end?

5. Which word in the text tells us that Katie hurried the lion onto the London Eye?

6. Why did the poor lion go pale and begin to shake while he was on the London Eye?

7. Who do you think might have been waving from the palace window?

8. Why did they decide to stop in the park?

9. Why were the lion's paws sore?

10. Why did the lion stay very still on his stone?

11. The children have sat on a bench and gone to sleep. How does this tie in with the beginning of the story?
