

Today we are focusing on the character of Tim. Tim works in the stables with horses and is in love with Bess. It is he who tells the King's men about the highwayman's visits.

1. Look at the drawings below of Tim. What do you notice?

2. Read the questions below. If possible, talk about them with an adult.

3. Complete the writing task below, always using full sentences. Remember to focus on your own specific writing targets.

4. Take a photo of your writing and then submit it to me!
