

Chow Meelan's Farm (Answers)

1. Chinese people write their Surnames first and then their Christian name.
2. On Chinese farms they grow a lot of rice.
3. At first the small plants are grown in small level plots of ground in people's gardens.
4. The plants grow to full size in fields.
5. The fields are flooded to prepare for the rice.
6. For rice to grow well it needs a lot of water and sunshine.
7. The rice is cut with a sharp curved knife when ready to be harvested.
8. The rice is moved away from the fields by wheel barrow or carried on people's backs.