

Deepening Understanding
YR5 Adventure Novel
Chapter Four Mixed Questions

This set of questions is based upon the text 'Kensuke's Kingdom' by Michael Morpurgo.

SI

Summarise Michael's thoughts as the lights of the Peggy Sue went away into the dark of the night.

2 Marks

R2

Why did Michael sing songs such as 'Ten Green Bottles' to himself when he was floating in the ocean?

2 Marks

V3

Michael recognises the sounds of gibbons. Why do you think he and his father describe their sound as 'funky'?

1 Mark

I4

Using Michael's description from the peak of the island, give one impression you gain as a reader.

Impression	Evidence

2 Marks

V5

Looking for water, Stella gave Michael 'baleful' looks as their eyes met. Baleful could be replaced with the word...

evil

antagonistic friendly

menacing

1 Mark

I6

Did Michael sleep well during his first night on the island?

Yes

No

Explain why!

2 Marks

I7

Michael created a fire which was described as being 'like an inferno'. What does this suggest about the fire?

2 Marks

S8

Using the numbers 1-5, order the events from Chapter 4.

Michael angled his glass to start a fire.

Reunited, Michael and Stella clambered to the peak.

They realised monkeys could survive on the island.

Michael fell asleep.

They walked for a long time searching for water.

1 Mark

