

Using apostrophes!

There are two ways to use apostrophes!

When you contract words

do not = don't

Or when you are saying something belongs to someone

Miss Thornton's pencil case

Using apostrophes in contractions...

it is = _____

we will = _____

I am = _____

Should not = _____

TOP TIP

The first word never changes!

You get rid of letter in the second word and put an '

not will

am

Can you write a sentence for 2 of the above contractions?

Using apostrophes to show singular possession...

When you want to show that something belongs to that person or thing, you add a possessive apostrophe and an s. For example: The cat's tail was fluffy.

TASK

Fix the sentences using an apostrophe correctly below:

1. The wings belong to the bee.
2. The smelly stickers belong to Miss Thornton.
3. The stripes belong to the bee.

Now create 2 of your own.
