

Today you are going to create a new blurb for the story.

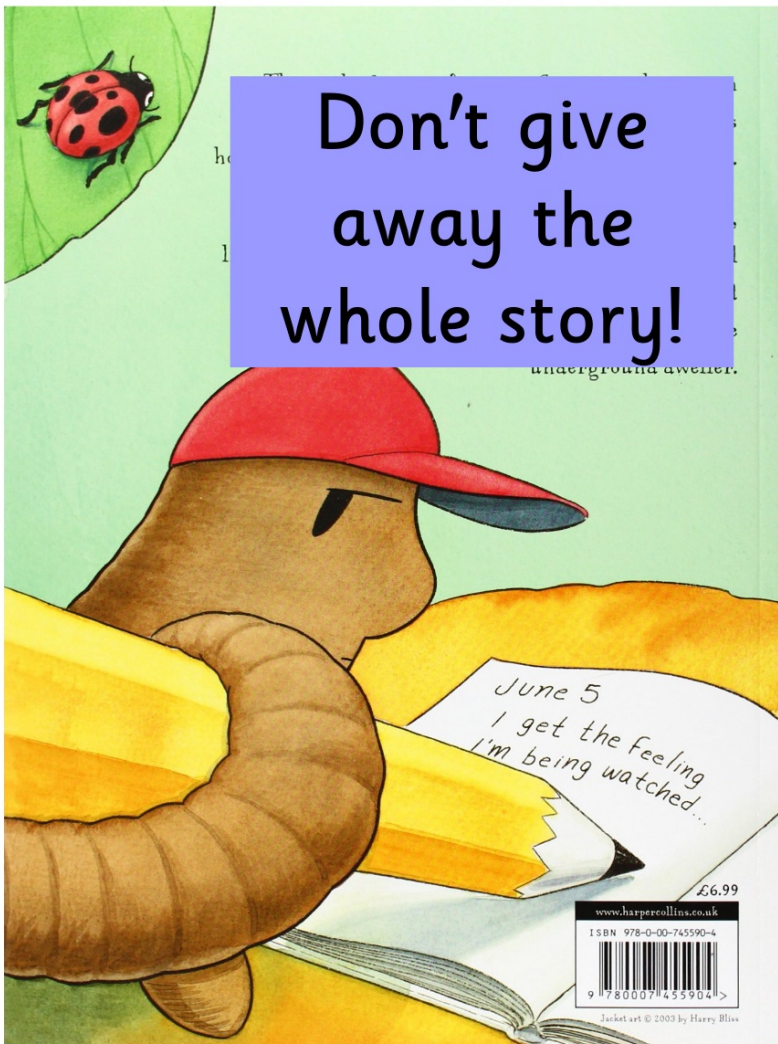

What is a blurb?

A blurb is on the back cover of a book. It gives the reader a sneak peek of the story.

It tells them a little bit of what it's about, gets them interested BUT DOESN'T give the whole story away!

Don't give away the whole story!

Your blurb should introduce the story.

tell the reader what they might expect to read about.

Give a sneak preview of some of the things worm gets up to.

This was mine:

I introduced the book

This is my diary all about the life of a worm.

I asked a question to get the reader interested

Do you know there are some really good things about being a worm?

But there are also some bad things. Like being trod on, homework and not being able to walk upside down.

I included some things from in the story

I love being a worm. It's a good laugh sometimes. Want to find out why? Then come and read my diary.

I left the reader wanting to read on to find out more

Time to create yours!

Here are some sentence starters to help you...

This is my diary _____

Do you _____ ?

One day _____

If you want to _____ then read on!

I can't wait to read your blurbs. Remember... don't give too much away!
