Today we are going to continue with the main body of the letter.

What can we include in our paragraph?

- What did you do in Birmingham City Centre.
- What landmarks did you see?
- What landmarks did you like and dislike? Why? Explain your reason here.
- Anything else you think is important for your pen pal to know about Birmingham.

Last week on Wednesday, I went on trip to Birmingham City Centre to explore what my city is like. In addition, I enjoyed looking at the different landmarks around Birmingham. For example, we saw the Queen Victoria statue in Victoria Square. The statue is made up marble stone and this is where the heart of Birmingham is every year during Christmas. It's beautiful when all the Christmas decorations are put up and people are enjoying the German markets.
