

Use the correct tense in my writing.

Begin to evaluate the effectiveness of my writing and others' writing and suggest grammar and vocabulary improvements.

Check your sentence makes sense
Capital letters for names and places
Capital letters and full stops

Spellings

Common mistakes

Today we are going to begin to write our own Romulus and Remus stories.

Let's practise part 1 of our text maps.

King Numitor

ruled in

called Alba Longa

King Numitor

Amulius

male heirs

No children

No husband

Rhea

Rhea

Mars

Amulius

Rhea

Before you start, have a read of mine. What have I included?

Long time ago in ancient times, a king called Numitor ruled an ancient city in Italy called Alba Longa. King Numitor had a younger brother called Amulius. One day, Amulius overthrew Numitor so that he could be king. He killed all of Numitor's male heirs, ordered Numitor's sister Rhea to never marry and have children and became king of Alba Longa. However, Rhea fell in love with Mars the god of war and had twin boys. Amulius was furious with Rhea, so he put her in jail. Then, he ordered a servant to throw the twins down the River Tiber.

Romulus and Remus

A long time ago in ancient times,

Useful spellings

Amulius

Romulus

Rhea

Numitor

Remus

Alba Longa

ABC

DETAIL

extended sentences

Read your work back to yourself.

Have you used capital letters for names and places? Rhea, Romulus, Remus, Amulius, Mars.

Have you started every sentence with a capital letter?
Have you ended every sentence with .
? !

everybody can always improve their work. One of your targets this week is to be able to 'evaluate our work'.

Can you find one part of your work that you can improve?

It could be a word that you can improve or a sentence that you can extend.

In purple pen underneath your paragraph, write what you have changed.

"I changed _____ to _____."