

Begin to evaluate the effectiveness of my writing and others' writing and suggest grammar and vocabulary improvements.

Before we write our own Remus and Romulus stories, we need to know how to make our legend come alive.

We want our writing to be as exciting as possible.

Choose one of the main characters from 'Romulus and Remus'.

In your book, stick your picture in and write down the name of your chosen character above it.

King Numitor

King Amulius

Romulus

Remus

round your picture, write some words/phrases describe your character. What is their personality like?

It's feedback some of these descriptions. Can we improve any?

I'm going to make a list of our adjectives on the flipchart. Only the most interesting words will be going on the board!

Let's take our impressive vocabulary and turn it in to a sentence.

Underneath your picture, I want you to choose 1 of your descriptive words and turn it in to a simple sentence.

Examples: King Amulius
was vicious.

Romulus was brave

Remus was unlucky

Now that you have a simple sentence, you can expand it in to something more interesting.

There are lots of different ways we could do this adverbials

long time ago
strangely unfortunately surprisingly quickly
one day
Rome

Subordinating Conjunctions
I	if
S	since
A	as
W	when
A	although

add extra detail from the s u might need to change your sentence slightly

A long time ago, there lived a king called Amulius who was vicious since he tried to kill Romulus and Remus.

When Romulus and Remus met King Amulius shepherds, Remus was unlucky because he was captured.

Your turn! Write your interesting sentence underneath your work so far.
